When you pay cash for your dry goods and supplies you save money. Call on Bills & Hill.

PERSONAL.—Dr. H. Black and lady left for the Springs in East Tennessee last Monday.

The name of Col. John McGuirk, of Holly Springs, has been added to the list of Judges for the forthcoming tournament.

CHRONIC.—C. M. O'Hara, druggist, is the sole agent in this country for Dr. John Bull's renowned, Colton Bitters—the best tonic ever manufactured.

GONE EAST.—Jerome Hill, junior partner of the popular house of Bills & Hill, has gone east for the purpose of selecting fall and winter goods.

EQUAL TO THE ROSE BUD.—If you want chewing tobacco equal to the sweet Rose Bud of Virginia, go to Fleming, Ussery & Co. It is delicious, and besides, has qualities that seldom fade!

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—On the fourth Saturday and Sunday in September I will hold a two days meeting at Middleburg; also at Spring Hill on Saturday and Sunday, September 28th and 29th. J. H. GARRATT.

NEXT WEEK.—A full synopsis of the proceedings of the September term of the County Court will appear in next week's Bulletin. R. G. Crawford, deputy clerk, will please accept our thanks for a copy of the proceedings.

HAIR FAKE.—The Mississippi Central and the Memphis and Charleston Railroads will sell half-fare tickets to all who propose attending the grand tournament to be held here on the 11th of October next.

STOVES.—Bills & Hill have in store and for sale a fine assortment of superior cooking stoves. No family should be without one.

YOUR ORNAMENT.—J. H. Sandler, house, sign and ornamental painter, will be pleased to have your order for work in his line. All work guaranteed. Address J. H. Sandler, Bolivar, Tenn. Orders from the country will receive prompt attention. Paper-hanging and glazing promptly executed.

CUTLERY.—Mr. H. (our "comp.") requests us to say that he is under many obligations to A. F. F. for a sample of the superior cutlery kept on hand and for sale by Fleming, Ussery & Co. If you want anything of the kind, call and see Foster; he's a judge of good things and is "up to snuff" in more ways than one!

NOTICE.—The officers and members of the Hardeman county auxiliary society to the Confederate Orphan Asylum, are requested to meet at the Moyer House, on next Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock. Urgent business demands prompt attendance. By order of the President, Mrs. A. M. Acton.

BROKE HIS ARM.—Willie, son of Rev. W. H. Thompson, while skipping along the sidewalk that leads to his father's residence, last Tuesday evening, fell and broke both the bones in the lower part of one of his arms. He received the attention of Drs. Moore and Tate, who promptly administered to the little sufferer's painful wound.

TO FARMERS.—If you will subscribe for the Bulletin, your county paper, we will more than willingly take anything that man or beast will eat, as payment. Wood also passes current in the absence of filthy lucre, so-called. Single copy, one year, $3; in clubs of ten, $2. Subscription to date from the time the name is booked.

BAGGING AND ROPE. of the best quality, and in quantities to suit purchasers, can be had at the cash store of Bills & Hill.

E. F. DUKE.—By reference to another column it will be seen that E. F. Duke, the well-known Poochontas merchant, is at his post again, with a house full of choice dry goods, groceries, wares, etc. Read his card. He will give special attention to all cotton shipped through his hands and will make liberal advancements on the same.

MOORE, WHITFIELD & Co.—In another column will be found the card of this firm, who are doing business at No. 1, Howard's low, Memphis. The senior member of the firm, Virgil W. Moore, is a gallant Southern gentleman as ever drew a sword, is a man of fine business qualities, attentive and posted, while his associates in business are ranked among the best. They do a cotton factor's and general commission business. Give them a call.

COTTON PLANTERS.—Should prepare for gathering the crop, and we offer a little advice on that subject, which may prove beneficial. The season for chills and fever is now upon you at a time when you need all the assistance you can get. If you will send and procure a few bottles of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, it will save you much time and money. It cures the torpid liver, cleanses the stomach, opens the bowels, and never fails to immediately break up all forms of chills and fever, without affecting the head. It makes perspiring cures. See advertisement. C. M. O'Hara, agent, Bolivar.

A "CHRISTIANIZED" EXPRESSION.—Last Saturday the ring posts were planted upon the track over which the tournament is to transpire on the 11th of October next, for the benefit of CONFEDERATE ORPHAN CHILDREN, and, as a matter of course, a few gentlemen who feel a deep interest in the welfare of those helpless ones now stretching forth their hands for assistance were upon the grounds. After the posts were put in their proper places, a young gentleman who proposes to enter his name as one of the knights, made a few tilts. In making the third round, and while his spirited horse was under full headway, a cow unobtrusively crossed his path; the rider's horse ran against the animal, and both went violently to the ground. The gentleman, we are happy to say, met with no other injury than a slight spraining of his left wrist. Of course an affair like this could not be kept perfectly mum, nor do we suppose any one attempted to do so. Among the many who heard of the little episode, we learn, there was one person who made use of the expression: "It's a pity but what he had broken his neck!" This is, at least to us, a "christianized" expression, very!—that is, if one don't care what he says.

HOLMES & WHARTON.—Among the many high-toned, respectable Southern gentlemen doing business in Memphis is Geo. C. Holmes and William M. Wharton, both of whom are experienced merchants. They are doing a cotton factor's and general commission merchant's business at No. 36 Madison street, and solicit consignments of cotton and other products of the South, upon which they make liberal cash advancements. Orders for supplies filled promptly and at the lowest living rates. See their card in another column. We confidently recommend the house of Holmes & Wharton to the citizens of this and adjoining counties.

CLOSED.—The great revival, which has been going on in this place for nearly three weeks past, and which shook the foundations of old Nick and his angels of darkness, closed last Wednesday night. Never before, since Bolivar was known, has there been anything of the kind witnessed here. As a result of the good work done, we will state that near one hundred persons professed religion during the revival, a large majority of whom joined the different churches. The revolution made is wonderful—old men and young men who were sinners three weeks ago are now basking 'neath the sun-light of His smile, having an unflinching trust within them that time, nor change may never blur.

TO THE LADIES.—The ladies of Bolivar and vicinity are possessed of unusual musical talent and are proverbial for their sympathy in behalf of the unfortunate and oppressed, and in view of this well-known fact, we deem it not amiss to ask them to arrange an evening's entertainment to come off, say on the night of the 11th of October next, for the benefit of the Hardeman county Auxiliary Society to the confederate orphan's asylum. Many strangers will doubtless be in our town on the evening in question, who, together with our own citizens, would make up a splendid and paying audience.

LIKE YOU.—If you want pictures that are like you or your friends, be sure to call on Prof. Y. Day, of Memphis. His rooms are at the southeast corner of Main and Union streets. William Cooper, the celebrated portrait painter, is there also. The above gentlemen have no superiors in the South.

CROPS.—The weather continues remarkably favorable for the cotton crop. Huge stacks of bolls are to be seen looming up over the well-laden cornstalks throughout the county. The sweet potato crop promises a heavy yield, while stock peas are in a most flourishing condition. Surely, the farmer's heart has cause to be glad.

NEW PAPER.—The third number of the Tipton County Record, a neat weekly, printed in the town of Covington, Tenn., and edited by M. Munford and Wm. Sanford, is before us. It is a bold defender of home enterprise and deserves success. The "Record" is placed upon our exchange list.

MEMPHIS BUSINESS NOTICES.
LIGHT.—If you want a cheap, neat and beautiful light, go to Blood & Co's, 40 and 40 1/2 Monroe street. They deal in oils, lamps, lanterns, stoves, zinc, lead and tin-ware.

WEATHERING.—In the rear of the Senate building, Jefferson street, between Main and Second, is located Harry Weatherbee's gem of a saloon. His wines and liquors are all of the purest and best brands.

Piano Forte Tuning & Repairing.
The subscriber will tune and repair PIANO FORTES in the best possible manner, however old and worn they may be, using a special piano. Will guarantee the work to give general satisfaction. Address J. NELSON, Bulletin office, Bolivar.
